

2017 NORTH TEXAS SUSTAINABLE SHOWCASE INTEGRATIVE DESIGN

AIA Dallas, USGBC Texas and CSI Dallas will be hosting our 9th annual one day event, North Texas Sustainable Showcase, on July 13, 2017. This year the event is dedicated to Integrative Design, a foundation process that takes us to multiple levels beyond sustainability. Bill Reed will lead the workshop to explain what integrative systems thinking is, how and why it works, and how to merge these concepts with each attendee's existing work. For more information, visit: <http://www.ntxsustainableshowcase.com/>
